ACT of Diſſolution of the Feu-Duties of Bute, and other Rents allocat to the keeping of the Caſtle of Dumbartoun and the Conſtabulary thereof.

Auguſt 5. 1704.

OUR SOVERAIGN LADY, and the Eſtates of Parliament, taking to their ſerious Conſideration, the great and ſingular Services done to the Crown and Kingdom by the Noble Families of Lennox and Montroſe; And that of late, Charles Duke of Lennox hath diſponed and made over to James now Marqueſs of Montroſe, the Feu Duties of the Lands of Bute and Cowrie, Ferme and Watch-Mail of Kilpatrick Mains, and Feu-duties of Cardroſs, and with the Caſtle-green of the Caſtle of Dumbartoun, and the haill other Superiorities, Feu-duties and other Rents and Emoluments belonging to the ſaid Caſtle, and pertaining to the ſaid Duke as Heretable Keeper and Conſtable thereof; And that Her Majeſty hath conſented to the ſaid Agreement betwixt the ſaid Duke of Lennox and Marqueſs of Montroſe, under Condition, that the Marqueſs ſhould Diſpone and Reſign in favours of the Crown, the Rock and haill Fortifications of the ſaid Caſtle, with the Office of heretable Keeper and Conſtable thereof: As alſo, that he ſhould diſpone the ſaids Feu duties, Fermes and Watch-Mail, and others above-mentioned, to the perſons lyable in payment thereof, at the Rates, and under the Conditions ſet down by Her Majeſty. Therefore, and to the effect Her Majeſty may freely diſpone upon the Premiſſes, to be holden Blench of Her Majeſty, and the Marqueſs be fully ſecured therein; Her Majeſty for the good and weighty Reaſons and Cauſes above-mentioned, with Advice and Conſent of the Eſtates of Parliament, for all Right and Title and manner manner of way competent to the Crown or Principality: Hath Diſſolved, and hereby Diſſolves the foreſaids Feu-Duties of Bute, Feu-Duties of Comrie, and the ſaids Ferme and Watch-Mail of Kilpatrick Mains, and Feu-Duties of Cardroſs, with the Caſtle-green, and haill other Superiorities, Feu-Duties, Rents, & Emoluments belonging to the Keeping and Conſtabulary of the ſaid Caſtle, or to the ſaid Duke of Lennox as Keeper and Conſtable thereof, from Her Majeſties Crown and Principality, and Patrimony thereof, and from the Office of keeping the ſaid Caſtle, Reſcinding and Annulling all Acts of Parliament annexing the ſame thereto, and that may be any ways inconſiſtent therewith; Reſerving always to Her Majeſty and Her Succeſſors the ſaid Rock and haill Fortifications of the ſaid Caſtle to remain with the Crown, as a part of the annexed Patrimony thereof for ever. And Her Majeſty with Conſent foreſaid, Declares and Ordains, the Right to be granted by Her Majeſty to the Marqueſs of Montroſe of the Premiſſes hereby diſſolved, to be alſe valid and effectual, as if the Feu-Duties and others above mentioned had never been annexed to the Crown or Principality, nor the keeping of the ſaid Caſtle of Dumbartoun: And that this preſent Diſſolution ſhall have the full Force and Strength of any former Act of Diſſolution, paſt in the beſt Form with all Clauſes needful.

III.

ACT for the Security of the Kingdom.

Auguſt 5: 1704.

OUR SOVERAIGN LADY, the Queen's Majeſty, with Advice and Conſent of the Eſtates of Parliament, doth hereby Statute and Ordain, That in the Event of Her Majeſties Death, or of the Death of any of Her Majeſties Heirs or Succeſſors, Kings or Queens of this Realm; This preſent Parliament, or any other Parliament that ſhall be then in being, ſhall not be diſſolved by the ſaid Death, but ſhall, and is hereby Required and Ordained, if aſſembled, to Sit and Act in manner after-mentioned, notwithſtanding of the ſaid Death: And if the ſaid Parliament be under Adjournment the time of the ſaid Death, it ſhall notwithſtanding meet preciſely at Edinburgh the Twentieth day after the ſaid Death, excluding the Day thereof, whether the Day of the ſaid Adjournment be ſooner or later.

And it is further Statute and Ordained, that in case there shall be no Parliament in being at the time of the Death foresaid, then the Estates, or Members of the last preceeding Parliament, without regard to any Parliament that may be indicted, but never met nor constitute, shall meet at Edinburgh on the Twentieth day after the said Death, the day thereof excluded. And further providing, that in all, or any of the said Cases, if there shall happen to be any Vacancy of Members, by reason of Death or Promotion, the Barrons or Burghs concerned, shall have power to choose and supply the said Vacancy in the accustomed manner.
As likeways, that in all, or any of the said Cases, no person who hath been, is, or shall be then Papist, and hath not purged himself of Popery, by taking of the Formula set down in the third Act of the Parliament one thousand and seven hundred, before the said Death, shall be capable to be a Member of, or to elect, or be elected to the said Meeting of the Estates of Parliament. And sicklike, that no
English-man, nor Forreigner, having a Scots Title, and not having an Estate of Twelve Thousand Pounds yearly Rent within this Kingdom, shall in the Event foresaid, have Place, or Vote in the said Meeting of Estates. And the said Estates of Parliament, appointed, in case of the Death foresaid, to continue or meet as above, are hereby Authorized and Impowered, to Act and Administrate the Government in manner after mentioned; That is, that upon the Death of Her Majesty, leaving Heirs of Her own Body, or failing thereof lawful Successors designed, or appointed by Her Majesty, and the Estates of Parliament, or upon the Death of any succeeding King or Queen, leaving lawful Heirs and Successors, as said is,
The said Estates of Parliament are Authorized and Impowered, after having read to the said Heir or Successor the Claim of Right, and desired them to accept the Government in the Terms thereof, to require of and Administrate to the said Heir, or lawful Successors, by themselves or such as they shall commissionat, the Coronation Oath, and that with all convenient Speed, not exceeding Thirty Days after the Meeting of the said Estates, if the said Heir or Successor be within the Isle of Britain, or if without the same, not exceeding Three Months after the said Meeting, in order to their Exercising the Regal Power, conform to the Declaration of the Estates, containing the Claim of Right.
And also, in case of the said Heir or Successor their being under Age, which as to the Exercise of the Government, is hereby declared to be, until their attaining to Seventeen Years compleat, to provide for, Order, and Settle, within the space of sixty days after the said Meeting, a Regency for the Kingdom; until the said Heir or Successor take the Coronation Oath, and do actually enter to the Exercise of the Government.
The Regent or Regents to be so appointed, always having the Claim of Right read to him or them, as above, and he or they taking, at his or their Entry, the Coronation Oath, and to continue for such space as the

ſaid Eſtates ſhall appoint. After the Entry of which Heir or Succeſſor to the Exerciſe of the Government in manner foreſaid, or the ſettling the Regency in caſe of Under-Age, the ſaid Eſtates of Parliament ſhall only continue to Sit and Act for the ſpace of Three Months, unleſs they be ſooner lawfully Adjourned or Diſſolved by the ſaid Heir or Succeſſor being entered, or by the Regent or Regents lawfully ſettled, as ſaid is. And further, upon the ſaid Death of Her Majeſty, without Heirs of Her Body, or a Succeſſor lawfully deſigned and appointed as above, or in the caſe of any other King or Queen thereafter ſucceeding, and deceaſing without lawful Heir or Succeſſor, the foreſaid Eſtates of Parliament conveened, or Meeting, are hereby Authorized and Impowered, to Nominat and Declare the Succeſſor to the Imperial Crown of this Realm, & to ſettle the Succeſſion thereof upon the Heirs of the ſaid Succeſſors Body, the ſaid Succeſſor, and the Heirs of the Succeſſors Body, being always of the Royal Line of Scotland, and of the true Proteſtant Religion. Providing always, that the ſame be not Succeſſor to the Crown of England, unleſs that in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, or any other Seſſion of this or any enſuing Parliament during Her Majeſties Reign, there be ſuch Conditions of Government Settled and Enacted, as may ſecure the Honour and Soveraignity of this Crown and Kingdom; the Freedom, Frequency, and Power of Parliaments; the Religion, Liberty and Trade of the Nation from Engliſh, or any Forraign Influence, with power to the ſaid Meeting of Eſtates, to add ſuch further Conditions of Government, as they ſhall think neceſſary, the ſame being conſiſtent with, and no ways derogatory from thoſe which ſhall be enacted in this, and any other Seſſion of Parliament, during Her Majeſties Reign. And it is hereby Declared, That the ſaid Meeting of Eſtates ſhall not have Power to Nominat the ſaid Succeſſor to the Crown of this Kingdom in the Event above expreſt, during the firſt Twenty Days after their Meeting; which Twenty Days being elapſed, they ſhall proceed to make the ſaid Nomination, with all convenient Diligence. And it is hereby expreſly Provided and Declared, That it ſhall be high Treaſon for any Perſon, or Perſons, to adminiſtrate the Coronation Oath, or be Witneſſes to the Adminiſtration thereof, but by the Appointment of the Eſtates of Parliament in manner above-mentioned, or to own or acknowledge any Perſon as King or Queen of this Realm in the Event of Her Majeſties Deceaſe, leaving Heirs of Her own Body, until they have Sworn the Coronation Oath, and accepted the Crown in the Terms of the Claim of Right: And in the Event of Her Majeſties Deceaſe, without Heirs of Her Body, until they Swear the Coronation Oath, and accept on the Terms of the Claim of Right, and of ſuch other Conditions of Government, as ſhall be ſettled in this, or any enſuing Parliament, or added in the ſaid Meeting of Eſtates, and be thereupon declared and admitted as above, which Crime ſhall be Irremiſſible without Conſent of Parliament. And becauſe in the foreſaid Interval of Twenty Days, betwixt the ſaid Death and Meeting of the Eſtates of Parliament, in caſe there be no Parliament aſſembled for the time, it is neceſſary that the Adminiſtration of the Government be provided for in that Interim: Therefore it is hereby Declared, that in caſe of the Death of Her Majeſty, or of any ſucceeding King or Queen of this

Realm; Then, in all or either of the Events above-mentioned, the foresaid Administration shall be in the Hands of such of the Members of the Estates of Parliament, and such Members of the privy Council last in being, as shall be at Edinburgh the time of the said Death, or shall come to Edinburgh before the said Twentieth Day, and shall meet in the Parliament-House there; Which Members of the Estates & the said Members of the said privy Council, are hereby Impowered to Sit, and Act in the said Interim, for preserving the Peace and Quiet of the Kingdom allennarly, and till the said Meeting of the Estates, and no longer, Thirty of the said Members of the said Estates, and Members of the former Council being a Quorum, the plurality being always of the Estates, who were not of the former Council. And it is hereby further Statute and Ordained, that all Commissions granted to the Officers of State, Lords of Thesaury and Exchequer, President of the privy Council, and all other civil Commissions that are now granted during pleasure, shall by the Decease of the King or Queen Reigning, become null and void, excepting Sheriffs, Stewarts, and Justices of Peace in their respective Bounds. And for a further Security of the Kingdom, Her Majesty with Advice and Consent foresaid, Statutes and Enacts, That the whole Protestant Heretors, and all the Burghs within the same, shall furthwith provide themselves with Fire Arms for all the fencible Men, who are Protestants, within their respective Bounds, and those of the Bore proportioned to a Bullet of Fourteen Drop weight running: And the said Heretors, and Burghs, are hereby Impowered and Ordained to Discipline and Exercise their said Fencible Men once in the Month at least, the said Heretors always taking the Oath of Alledgeance and Assurance: As also, such Heretors or Fencible Men, who are suspect of Popery, are hereby appointed, when required, to take the Formula mentioned in the Act of Parliament one thousand seven hundred, and that before the Sheriff of the Shire, or any other Judge, within whose Jurisdiction they Reside. And it is hereby likeways Statute and Ordained, That upon the decease of Her Majesty, or any of Her Heirs or Successors, the Commissions of all Officers of the standing Forces above a Captain, shall immediatly become void and null, and that the Captains of the several Troops and Companies, and Lieutenants of those who shall have belonged to the Collonels, Lieutenant Collonels and Majors, do continue to command their respective Troops and Companies, without extending their Command any further, under the pain of Treason, till further Orders from the said Estates or Committee in the Interval. And further, Her Majesty with Advice and Consent foresaid, Requires and Ordains all Officers and Souldiers, who shall happen to be on daily Pay at the time of the decease foresaid, to continue in, or immediatly repair to their respective Garrisons and Quarters and not to remove from thence, but by Order of the said Estates, or Committee above-mentioned, upon pain of Treason. And lastly, Her Majesty with Advice and Consent foresaid, Rescinds, Casses and Annulls, the Seventeenth Act of the Session of Parliament one thousand five hundred and ninety six years, and all other Laws and Acts of Parliament, in so far as they are inconsistent with this Act.

ACT

Anent the Supply of Six Months Ceſs upon the Land-rent.

Auguſt 5. 1704.

THE Eſtates of Parliament taking to their Conſideration, the Danger that ſtill threatens this Kingdom, by reaſon of the continuance of the preſent War, which viſibly requires the keeping up of the ſtanding Forces, and the Supplies neceſſary for their Maintainance, and the Repairing, Furniſhing, and maintaining the Forts and Gariſons, and Out-reiking and maintaining the Frigots imployed for Defence of the Coaſts; Do therefore, humbly and cheerfully for themſelves, and in name and behalf of this Kingdom whom they repreſent, make offer to Her Majeſty of the Sum of Four hundred thirty two thouſand pound Scots, extending to Six Months Ceſs: Which new Supply is to be raiſed and uplifted out of the Land-rent of this Kingdom, in the ſame manner, and conform to the Proportions of the Shires and Burrows contained in the 15th Act of the Parl. 1701 years; Providing always, that the Proportions of Burghs be rated and payed as their Taxt-roll now is, or ſhall be ſettled by themſelves; Which new Supply is to be payed at the Terms following, Viz. Two Months thereof the firſt day of September next, Two Months at Candlemaſs next, and the laſt two Months thereof at Whitſunday next.

And Her Majeſty conſidering, that this Supply is granted for ſuch neceſſary Uſes, Doth with Advice and Conſent of the Eſtates of Parliament, Declare, that no Perſon or Perſons, ſhall be exempted from payment of their Proportion of this Supply for their Lands upon any pretence whatſoever; Excepting mortified Lands, and the Lands of New-Milns belonging to the Woollen Manufactory there: For which mortified Lands, and Lands of New-Milns, Deduction is to be allowed in the Quotas of the reſpective Shires, notwithſtanding of any former Law or Priviledge in the contrary: And Her Majeſty with Advice and Conſent foreſaid, appoints the Perſons contained in the Liſts, which are to be given in this Seſſion of Parliament, being always qualified according to Law, to be Commiſſioners for Ordering and Uplifting the ſaid Supply; with power to chuſe their own Clerk, and do every thing concerning the ſaid Supply, as is preſcribed and appointed by the foreſaid Act, and other Acts to which it relates, holding the ſame as here repeated; And ordains Execution to paſs for inbringing thereof, as is provided by the ſaid Acts in all points: And ordains the firſt Meeting of the ſaid Commiſſioners of Shires, to be at the reſpective Head Burghs thereof, the laſt Tueſday of Auguſt inſtant; And requires the Sheriffs and Stewarts, or their Deputs, to intimat the ſame to the Commiſſioners of their Shires and Stewartries, with power to the ſaids Commiſſioners, to appoint the ſubſequent Dyets of their Meetings, and their Conveeners from time to time; As alſo to appoint Collectors with ſufficient Caution as they ſhall think fit; And commits to Her Maieſties Privy Council, upon the Death or not Acceptance of the Commiſsioners of Supply appointed by this Act, to Nominat and Appoint others in their Places; And Her Majeſty with Advice and Conſent foreſaid, Declares all Clauſes contained in former Acts of Parliament and Conventions of Eſtates, in relation to the inbringing of Ceſs, and Quartering and anent Riding-money, to ſtand in full force as to the Supply now impoſed, as if they were herein expreſt, and were obſerved before the making of this Act; And it's hereby declared, that no Perſons whether Heretor or Collector lyable in payment of the ſaid Supply, ſhall be holden to produce their Receipts or Diſcharges of the ſame, after three years from their reſpective Terms of Payment, unleſs Diligence be done therefore by Denunciation, within the ſaid three years; In which caſe of Diligence by Denunciation, a year farder is only added to the ſaid three years, and none ſhall be holden to produce their Receipts or Diſcharges thereafter; And becauſe by the Supply hereby granted, the Land-rent and Burghs of this Kingdom are only burthened; And it being juſt that Perſonal Eſtates in Money, ſhould bear ſome proportional Burthen; Therefore Her Majeſty, with Advice and Conſent foreſaid, Statutes and Ordains, that every Debitor owing Money within this Kingdom at ſix per Cent of Intereſt, ſhall in the Payment of his Annualrent have Retention in his own hands of a Twelfth part of ſix per Cent, and this Retention to be from the Term of Whitſunday laſt by paſt excluſive, to the Term of Whitſunday next; And it's declared, that it ſhall be Uſury for any Creditor to refuſe to grant the ſaid Retention: And it's farder Statute and Ordained, that no part of the ſaid Supply be applyed to any other Uſes than theſe particularly above expreſt upon any pretence whatſoever; And more eſpecially, that the Clearance and Arrears due to the Forces on the preſent Eſtabliſhment, for the Fourteen Months laſt paſt, be payed to them punctually, the one half thereof out of the two Months Ceſs payable at Candlemaſs, and the other half thereof out of the two Months Ceſs payable at Whitſunday next, as above.

Follows the Commiſſioners of Supply, given in by the Noblemen and Commiſſioners for the ſeveral Shires, as was ordered in Parliament.

ACT in favours of the five Lords Commissioners of the Justiciary.

August 25: 1704.

UR SOVERAIGN LADY, and the Estates of Parliament taking to their Consideration, that the Five Lords of Justiciary are not provided by any special Act to a Sallary for their Service, nor to any certain Fund for their payment, but hitherto have had only Twelve hundred pound Scots each per annum, payed to them by Precepts from the Lords of Thesaury upon the Receivers: And their Places being one of the most Important of the Nation, concerning both the Lives and Fortunes of Her Majesties Leidges. Therefore the Queens Majesty, with the Advice and Consent of the Estates of Parliament, doth Fix, and hereby Fixes the said Sallary to be Twelve hundred Pounds Scots yearly to each of the saids Five Lords, making in haill the Sum of Six thousand pound Scots. And to the effect they may be the better secured therein, and out of a certain Fund, that they may not be exposed to the Inconveniency of undue payment: Do hereby Destinat and Appoint, that the same shall in all time coming be payed to them, and their Successors in that Office out of Her Majesties Customs, at two Terms in the year, Whitsunday and Martinmass, by equal Portions, beginning the first Terms payment at Martinmass next, as for the first half year, and so furth Termly thereafter. And for that end has dissolved, and hereby dissolves, so much of the said Customs from the Crown, as does extend to Six thousand pounds Scots yearly, for the end foresaid allennarly. And Ordains the present Receivers, Collectors, and all others in time coming, to pay to them, and each of them, and their Successors in Office, their said Sallary of Twelve hundred pounds Scots yearly, established upon them by the Force of this Act, and that preferable to all other Payments, and next to the Twenty Thousand pound Scots formerly allocat upon the Customs to the Lords of Session. And to the effect the same may be more effectually secured, do hereby extend this present Act in their favours, with the ſame Powers, Priviledges, and Order of Diligence by Horning, &c. againſt all Receivers, Collectors, Tackſmen, Intrometters, and others mentioned and contained in the ſeventh Act ſecond Seſſion of King Charles the ſeconds Firſt Parliament, as fully and amply as thereby given in favours of the ſaid Lords of Seſſion, as if every particular Clauſe were here de verbo in verbum expreſt, and which ſhall be holden as here repeated, diſpencing with the not doing the ſame, &c.

ACT Allowing the Exportation of Wooll, &c.

Auguſt 25: 1704.

OUR SOVERAIGN LADY, with Advice and Conſent of the Eſtates of Parliament, Ratifies, and perpetually Confirms, the ſeveral Acts of Parliament prohibiting the importing of Woollen Cloath, or Stuff, or any Manufacture wherein there is Wool; And allows the Exporting of Sheeps Wooll, and Woollen Yarn, whether of the Growth of this or of any other Kingdom, and that to the next Seſſion of Parliament inclusive: And farder continues the Exportation of Sheep-Skins with Wooll upon them, and allows the Exportation thereof at all the Ports of the Kingdom, the ſaid Wooll and Skins paying Duty as formerly. And it is hereby Enacted and Declared that all Woollen Manufacture of this Nation exported, ſhall be free of any Impoſt whatſomever during the continuance of this Act.

VII.

ACT continuing the Commission for the Publick Accompts.

August 25. 1704.

OUR SOVERAIGN LADY, Considering the great Pains and Diligence taken by the Commission anent the Publick Accompts, appointed by the sixth Act of the last Session of Parliament, and Satisfaction thereby given, and by the Report thereof made to this Session of Parliament; And that yet there remains much of what was committed to be compleated. Therefore Her Majesty, with Advice and Consent of the Estates of Parliament, Renews the said Commission to the Persons therein named, in the haill Heads, Articles, Clauses, Provisions, and all other Points therein-contained; And moreover, to cognosce upon whatever is or shall be remitted to them by this Session of Parliament, and particularly to call the Collectors of the Bullion, and others lyable to Accompt before them, and this Commission to endure to the next Session of Parliament inclusivè: And Ordains their first Meeting to be the first lawful day after adjourning of this Session of Parliament, and for the better carrying on and finishing the said Work, and for the Encouragement of William Seton of Pitmedden younger, Mr. John Clark of Pennicook younger, Mr Dougal Stuart, and Mr. Robert Frazer Advocats, four of the said Commission, they allow to each of them Two Hundred pound Sterling, out of the first and readiest of the Rests and Ballances contained in their Report, and one hundred pound Sterling out of the same Subject, to be divided by them, betwixt Walter Riddel their Clerk and the other Servants. And farder, allows to David Callender Servant to the Clerks of Thesaury, Fifty pound Sterling out of the said Fund, for his Pains and Services done by him in the said Accompts.

ACT for an Impoſition on Forreign Ships that come into this Kingdom, for bearing the Charges of finiſhing the Maps and Deſcription of the Sea-coaſts and Iſles, &c.

Auguſt 26. 1704.

OUR SOVERAIGN LADY, with Advice and Consent of the Eſtates of Parliament, Statutes and Ordains, that as a Fund for compleating the Sea and Land Maps, and other ends after-mentioned, Twelve Shilling Scots be exacted for ilk Voyage of every Tunn of all Ships and Veſſels not belonging to Perſons reſiding in Scotland, that ſhall come in to any Port or Road within this Kingdom, and ſhall there Load, Unload, or break Bulk above an hundred Pound Scots Value of Proviſions, to be payed in to the Collectors of Her Majeſties Cuſtoms and applyed at the ſight of the Lords of Theſaury, for paying ſuch Sums as ſhall be found reſting to John Adair Geographer, for ſuch Maps as are already compleated, and for defraying his Expenſes, and for his Pains in finiſhing the Maps and Deſcriptions of the haill Sea-Coaſt and Iſlands of this Kingdom; And then for finiſhing the Land Maps in the firſt place, and for paying of the yearly Sallary of Twelve hundred pounds due to the Judge of the Admirality in the ſecond place; And the Superplus (if any be) to the payment of one thouſand eight hundred pounds yearly, to Mr. Alexander Cunninghame Profeſſor of the Civil Law, and to Captain John Slezer; for the ends mentioned in the 18th Act 7. Seſſ. Parl. K. William, Entituled, Act anent the Tunnage. And in the laſt place, to Mr. Alexander Nisbet, to enable him to publiſh his Treatiſe of Herauldry. And Her Majeſty with Advice and Conſent foreſaid Ordains this Impoſition to commence from the firſt of September the preſent year, and to endure, and be uplifted for the ſpace of five years thereafter, by the Collectors of Her Majeſties Cuſtoms at the ſeveral Ports for the ſpace foreſaid, who with their Cautioners are hereby declared lyable for the ſaid Impoſition, in ſo far as the ſame ſhall not be faithfully and punctually uplifted and payed in by them. And moreover, O*ur*

dai

dains the ſaid Collectors and their Deputs, to enter the Names of the Maſters, Ships and Burden, in the Report-Books of the ſeveral Cuſtom-Offices, and give the ſaid John Adair ſubſcribed Liſts thereof as the ground of their Charge every year; And Appoints the ſame Execution againſt all perſons lyable in payment, as is uſual for the Queens Cuſtoms. And finally, Her Majeſty with Advice and Conſent foreſaid, Grants full Power and Warrand to the Lords Commiſſioners of Her Majeſties Theſaury, to Lett in Tack the foreſaid Duty of Tunnage, at any time during the ſpace foreſaid, with Power to the Tackſmen to appoint Collectors of their own Naming, or to make uſe of the Collectors of the Cuſtoms, as they ſhall think fit, the ſaid Collectors and their Cautioners being always bound as above.
